in deep appreciation to

Mr. Joseph Llodra

For the tireless devotion, concern, and compassion he has directed to the welfare of Comp for the benefit of each individual.

A man who everyone respects for his desire and ability to arouse enthusiasm and spirit in the hearts and minds of even the doubting.

These emotions have unified us into one great force, never questioning the goals and ambitions we know now can be attained.

We cannot express enough our gratitude for the traits he has instilled in us, and we pray that these qualities will long linger and mature with us.

Thankfully, we dedicate our book to you.

how can you run when you know?

paranoia strikes deep into your life
it will creep.
it starts when you're always afraid — step out of line, the man comes to take you away.

Once on yellow paper with green lines he wrote a poem
And he called it "Chops" because that was the name of his dog And that's what it was all about And his teacher gave him an 'A' and a gold star
And his mother hung it on the kitchen door and read it to all his aunts And his father tucked him into bed at night
And was always there to do it

Once on white paper with green lines
he wrote a poem
And he called it "Autumn" because that was the name of the season
And that's what it was all about
And his teacher gave him an 'A' and told him to write more clearly And his mother never hung it on the kitchen door because it had just been painted And his father never tucked him into bed at night and got mad when he got mad and cried for him to do it

Once on paper torn from his notebook
he wrote a poem
And he called it "Question Marked Innocence" because that was the name of the girl
And that's what it was all about And his professor gave him an 'A' and a strange and steady look
And his mother never hung it on the kitchen door because he never let her see it
And at 5 a.m. he tucked himself into bed, his father snoring soundly

That's why on the back of a pack of matches he tried another poem And he called it "Absolutely Nothing" Because that's what it was all about And he gave himself an 'A'
And a slash on each damp wrist And he hung it on the bathroom door
Because he couldn't reach the kitchen perfection of a kind was what he was after the poetry he invented was easy to understand he knew human folly like the back of his hand.

he had an interest in armies and fleets when he laughed respectable senators laughed at his feet.
but when he cried the little children died in the streets.

wise men have come to you to give you of their wisdom. we came to take of your wisdom:
and behold we have found that which is greater than wisdom.
it was a flame spirit in you that was ever gathering more of itself, while you, heedless of its expansion, bewailed the withering of your days.
it is life in quest of life in bodies that fear the grave.

Mrs. Shumway has provided the encouragement, layout after layout. Her persistence and bounce that defies age and exhaustion kept us on the road to the last deadline.

which they have — and they give it not for recognition. They give us inspiration and guidance, but we must form our own thoughts.
We're on our own now . . .

CLASS OF 1972

1972 CLASS ADVISORS

Jane MacDonald

Chris Geanacopoulos

May we offer our warmest congratulations as you graduate from Comprehensive High School. As you go out into the world to take your place in our adult society, do so with the knowledge and the ideals which we have tried to instill in you during the past four years.

It has indeed been a pleasure and a privilege for us to have worked with your fine class. Through your spirit, determination, and ambition, you yourselves have made the Class of '72 the great success that it is and will always be remembered as.

Our wish is that you will retain all of the qualities of working together which you have demonstrated to a degree surpassed by no other class.

We wish you all the success and happiness which life can bring.

May God Bless You.

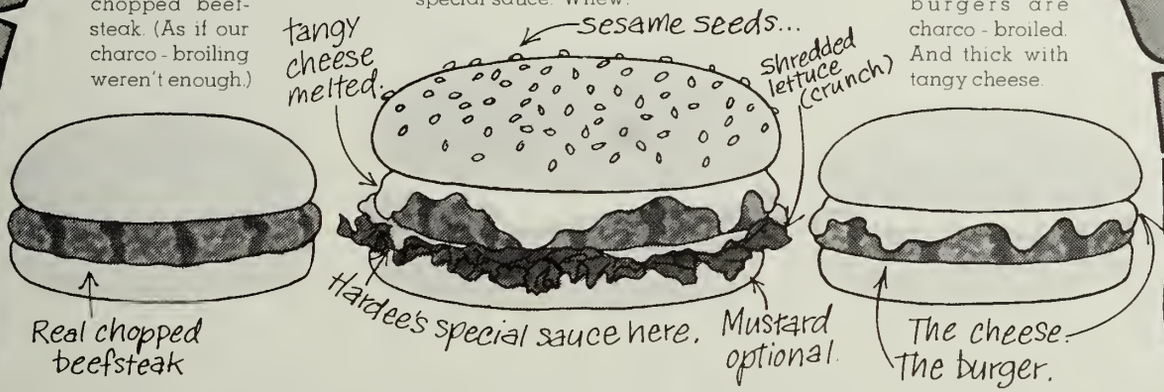
HURRY ON DOWN TO HARDEE'S

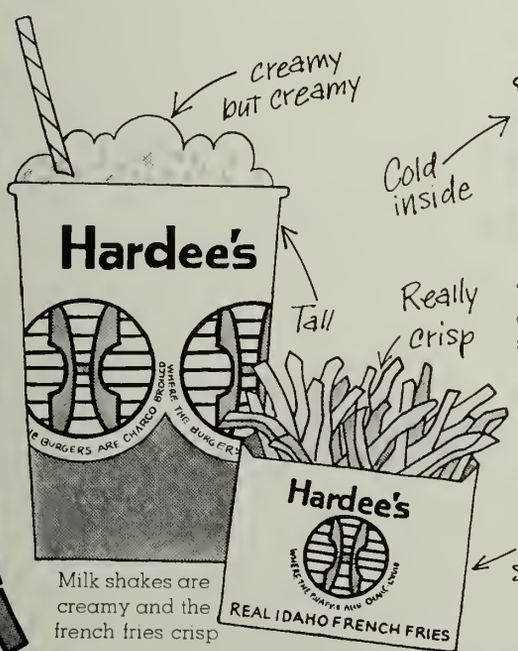
Big things like the Hardee's Huskee only cost a little. But give you a lot: Charco-broiled chopped beefsteak, melted cheese, a delicious sesame bun, shredded lettuce and Hardee's special sauce. Whew.

Our burger isn't just a burger. It's chopped beefsteak. (As if our charco-broiling weren't enough.)

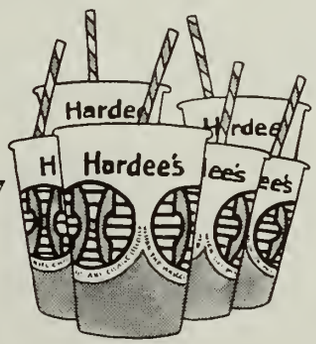
Even the cheeseburgers are charco-broiled. And thick with tangy cheese.



Our inside story.



Milk shakes are creamy and the french fries crisp



There are more kinds of soft drinks than you can shake a straw at.

You can get orders-to-go, pronto.

...hurry, hurry.

by Cat Stevens

Morning has broken like the first morning blackbird has spoken like the first bird praise for the singing praise for the morning praise for them springing fresh from the word sweet the rains new fall sunlit from heaven like the first dewfall on the first grass praise for the sweetness of the wet garden sprung in completeness where his feet pass mine is the sunlight mine is the morning born of the one light Eden sow play praise with elation praise every morning there are places: remember all my life, though some have changed some forever not for better some have gone, and some remain. all these places have their moments with loves and friends i can still recall . . . though i know i'll never lose affection for people and things that went before i know i'll often stop and think about them in my life, i love you more.
